

Enclose
an extra visit
so fresh and sweet.

April 4th. 96.

Dearest One,

No word from you today, but you are
just as near and dear
to me as tho' a hundred letters had arrived.

I opened my eyes at 10 A.M. this morning; then went for a long walk before
lunch and spent the afternoon with the
dentist and later
Mar Van, her sister

from Tassar & Mr.
 Brighley from Cornell.
 We had a jolly time
 and they are all coming up tomorrow about 5 P.M. to visit me. In the morning I go to Malleson's church -
 The Easter service is going to be grand: it
 immediately after dinner. Malattie & I are going down to the Liberty Association
 where her <sup>mother</sup> has to stay and take care of the place over Easter -
 I have not yet

decided what to do
 with the evening.

Monday I shall go to Mr. Vernon
 to spend the day with the Hawkins' family.
 The reason of all this time to spare is, that Madame left town
 Friday night to return on Tuesday, so I take my next hand last
 lesson on that afternoon.
 Malleson is going to spend the morning with me, Tuesday.

Mr. Storm goes with me in the afternoon
to take my lesson & Mr. Wainwright has just written to ask me to go with him in the evening to the Settlement.
Wed morning, I have to shop - wed afternoon
spend with Mac Van, Wed night to the Theatre with Mallinson
Thursday pack -
Now you can realize
my program beside all this I have got to write about a dozen
letters and make at least 6 calls

Avoid ~~you~~ getting sick of my uninteresting
letters? I've forgotten how to write, spell and compose. Will be home in all probability Thursday night at 9 P.M. But will let you know later.

Don't desert the Agassiz boys for me Lil Papaver & her need me they will be rejoiced to do Lil -

Your own loving
Grace.
